The MARYLAND GAZETTE.

[XIXth Year.] THURSDAY, October 13, 1763. [N°. 962.]

To his Excellency HORATIO SHARPE, Esq; Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Province of MARYLAND:

The humble ADDRESS of the Upper House of ASSEMBLY.

May it please your Excellency,

IMPRESSED with the deepeſt Senſe of Gratitude for the many Inſtances we experienced during the War, of our moſt gracious Sovereign's Attention to the Preſervation and Proſperity of theſe Colonies, and for the particular Regard that is ſhewn for their future Security and Welfare, by the Terms of a glorious and moſt advantageous Peace, we with Pleaſure embrace this Opportunity of expreſſing our Joy at the Accompliſhment of his Majeſty's benevolent and early Deſire, by an Event ſo very agreeable to our Wiſhes, and at the Proſpect afforded us, by the Increaſe of the Royal Family, of the ineſtimable Bleſſings we at this Period derive from the Reign of the beſt of Kings, being extended to our Poſterity.

We beg your Excellency to accept our thankful Acknowledgments for the Speech you were pleaſed to make to us at the Opening of this Seſſion, and for the Opportunity you have given us of conſulting by what Means the Trade and Commerce of this Province might be promoted and encouraged, conſiſtent with the Laws of Great-Britain; to which your Excellency may be aſſured, we ſhall on this, and every other Occaſion, pay the greateſt Regard; and we flatter ourſelves your Excellency is ſatisfied, that nothing will be wanting on our Parts to provide for the Payment of the Militia and other Perſons, that have Claims on the Public, as ſoon as their reſpective Accounts can be adjuſted.

Senſible of the Truth of your Excellency's Obſervation, that, without Harmony between the ſeveral Branches of the Legiſlature, our Meetings here can be of no real Benefit or Utility to our Country, we take the Liberty to aſſure you, that we continue both diſpoſed and reſolved to cultivate it, and to do every Thing on our Parts, that can tend to promote the Welfare of the Province, which it muſt ever be our true Intereſt and earneſt Deſire to advance.

B. TASKER, Preſident.

The Governor's ANSWER.

Gentlemen of the Upper Houſe of Aſſembly,

I THANK you kindly for your obliging Addreſs, and Doubt not but your Proceedings will be agreeable to the Aſſurances you have been pleaſed to give me.

HOR°. SHARPE.

To his Excellency HORATIO SHARPE, Eſq; Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Province of MARYLAND:

The humble ADDRESS of the Houſe of DELEGATES.

May it please your Excellency,

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Delegates of the Freemen of the Province of Maryland, in Aſſembly convened, return your Excellency our unfeigned Thanks for your Speech at the Opening of this Seſſion.

We moſt heartily and ſincerely Rejoice with your Excellency, on the late glorious Peace, which the Wiſdom of his Majeſty's Councils, ſeconded by the vigorous Efforts of his Arms, has reſtored to his Subjects, on Terms ſo highly beneficial to his Dominions in general, and ſo particularly calculated to advance the Security and Proſperity of the Britiſh Colonies in North-America: And we beg Leave to return your Excellency our moſt cordial Congratulations on the auſpicious Birth of a Prince of Wales, from which happy Event we form the pleaſing Expectations, that our Poſterity will enjoy the innumerable Bleſſings, which we, and all our Fellow Subjects, at preſent derive from the propitious Reign of the beſt of Sovereigns.

The ſeveral Matters which your Excellency has thought fit to recommend to our Attention, we ſhall take into our moſt ſerious Conſideration, and enter into ſuch Reſolutions thereon as may be agreeable to Juſtice, and conducive to the Intereſt of our Conſtituents.

We are firmly perſuaded, that Union and Harmony are eſſentially neceſſary to effectuate the good Purpoſes of all public Conſultations, and your Excellency may be aſſured we meet at this Time, as we ever have done, with a determined Reſolution to avoid every Meaſure that may tend to interrupt the good Underſtanding, and mutual Confidence, which alone can render our Meetings of real Benefit and Utility to our Country.

H. HOOPER, Speaker.

LONDON, July 2.

SATURDAY laſt one Anne Alderton, a Girl about Sixteen Years of Age, Servant to Mr. Day, in Littleport Fen, was committed by Henry Morley, Eſq; to Ely Goal, on Suſpicion of robbing her Maſter's Houſe, and afterwards ſetting it on Fire, which was burnt to the Ground. We hear that Mr. Day and his Wife, being obliged to go out on ſome Buſineſs, left the Servant to take Care of the Houſe; but previous to this, Mrs. Day had wrapped up what Caſh there was in the Houſe, put it into a Sack, and ſecreted it among ſome others, in the Preſence of the Girl, leſt any Body ſhould rob the Houſe in their Abſence. Soon after, the Girl took the Money, and hid it in a Hole in the Ground, and then ſet fire to the Houſe, in order to burn the Sacks, and prevent a Diſcovery. The Money was afterwards found by the Direction of the Girl.

July 8. On Wedneſday Morning a Fellow attacked, near the Monument on Landidown, two Perſons, whom he robbed of ſome ſmall Sums; and afterwards coming to the Turnpike on this Side of the Down, he found there a Man paying for paſſing through; on which he ordered the Turnpikeman to go into his Houſe and ſhut the Door, and ſaid, I'll receive the Gentleman's Money; and accordingly robbed the Perſon of a conſiderable Sum. He then came on to a little Alehouſe on the Croſs Roads, where he put up his Horſe, and ſtaid Half an Hour; and having dreſs'd himſelf, and fed his Horſe, he told the Landlord he ſhould ſet off for Tadbury. Upon the Road, near Petty France, he robbed a Gentleman's Servant of Eight Guineas; and soon after meeting with a Man returning from Turbury Market, he demanded his Money. The Man, who had a little Boy before him, told the Villain that he had no Money. He then demanded his Watch, and endeavoured to pull it out of his Pocket by the String, which in the Struggle broke; and the Man refusing to give it to him, he said, Do you resist with me? and immediately putting his Pistol over the Boy's Shoulder, fired it, and lodged three Slugs in the poor Man's Breast, of which he died soon after. The Villain was immediately pursued by some People, but got clear off.

WILLIAMSBURG, Sept. 29.

To-morrow his Honour our Governor sets out by Water for Charlestown in South-Carolina, to be present at the Congress appointed to be held the 15th of next Month, at Augusta, in that Province, between the Governors of the Southern Colonies and the Headmen of the several Tribes of Indians in those Parts.

Sept. 30. The present Disorder among the Horned Cattle, of which Numbers have died, appears, from some Observations, to be a malignant Fever; and the following, when timely applied, has been found an Antidote against the Distemper: Bleed plentifully, and put a Rowel in the Dewlap, which keep open a Fortnight, or three Weeks; give an Ounce of Salpetre every Day, (for 10 or 12 Days); if they dung too hard, give half a Pint of Molasses, which may be repeated occasionally; and it is necessary to keep them from ranging about as much as possible.

ANNAPOLIS, October 13.

We have a Report from the Northward, which we fear is True, that several Detachments of the King's Troops, with a Convoy of Provisions, Ammunition, &c. marching to the Relief of Fort Detroit, have fell in with a large Body of Indians, among whom it is said were many of the Senecas, who, having drawn them into an Ambuscade, fell upon our advanced Party, after placing near 300 of their Number between them and the second Division: That upon their first Fire they killed the chief Officer in Command, and in a small Time his two Seconds, upon which our Troops fell into Disorder, and the Indians rushing in, cut the most of them to Pieces: That the second Division, on hearing the Firing, advanced to their Relief, and fell into the Ambush laid for them, who treated them in the same Manner; after which the united Body of the Indians attacked and took the Convoy, after a Total Defeat of the Troops who remained with the Waggons, and carried off every Thing except two Waggons and some Arms: That about 28 Men had fled from the Action, and got into the Port at Niagara, and that on their Arrival there, the Commanding Officer marched out with a Party of the Garrison to the Place of the Action, and after burying the Dead, brought off the two remaining Waggons, with some few other Things they had left.
